

Practice 11

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Sesame Street is a popular American children's television series. It is education and entertaining at the same time. The stories are full of laivly, colourful characters that are funny as well.

1.

2.

3.

Sesame Street's first epysode was aired on 10 November

4.

1969. Till today, the series is still run due to its great popularity.

5.

The aim of the show is still to educate the children beised on the country's curriculum.

6.

Sesame Street began as a programme fund by the American government and private foundations.

7.

However, it was later so success that it became self-supporting. It was earning iinough to fund itself. In fact, by its 9.

8.

40th aniversary in 2009, it had become the 15th highest-rated

10.

children's television show in the United States. A servey done in 1996 showed that by the age of three, 95 per cent of American pre-schoolers would have watched the show. By 2014, Sesame 11.

Street had win 167 Emmy awards and eight Grammy awards. This 12.

was more of any other children's television show.

The top five most popular characters in Sesame Street are the Count, Oscar the Grouch, Cookie Monster, Big Bird and Elmo.

 Practice 12

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Karaoke is a form of interactive entertainment. It allows an amateur singer to sing along with recording music using a 2.

1.

microphone. The music can be an instrewmental version or a 3.

version with vocals. The lyrics of the song will be flaeshed across the television screen. The lyrics will have a symbol that moves along with the song in order to guide the sing.

4.

The concept of karaoke is not new. It is not always practical for a singer to have a full band or orchestra to pracktise with him or her. So, it is more feasible to have a 'karaoke' recording for such situation.

5.

6.

A basic karaoke machine includes a music player that allows the song's pitch to be adjust. This allows the singer to sublect a pitch that best suits his vocal range. There are also microphones and an awdio system.

7.

8.

9.

10.

Nowadays, there are even karaoke vedeo games. Karaoke 11.

applications can now be access on mobile phones, computers and even in cars. However, such forms of karaoke are not as popular 12.

due to the limit functions that these machines can support. Hence karaoke lounges are still more popular.

 Practice 13

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Sushil was going for an outdoor adventure camp with his 1. classmates. He was very excited as this would be its first camping trip. A week before the camp, his mother had taken him to a 2.
 shop to buy some necessari equipment. The shop specialised 3.
on selling all sorts of things that could be used when camping.
 4.
 Sushil was spoylt for choice. He did not know where to begin.
 5.
 The shop provided a checklist of beisic camping equipment that was needed. Right at the top of the list was a tent. So, Sushil and 6.
 his mother started at the sektion where all the tents were found.

They looked at each one carefully. In the end, they decided on 7.

one that was dewrable yet lightweight. Sushil chose one that was 8.

9.

green, his faverite colour. Next on the list was a sleep bag. They had to buy one that was not too thick but it would be too hot.

10.

11.

That day, Sushil and his mother spent near four hours at the shop. By the time they left the shop, they were both laden with bags. They had spent nearly three hundred dollars buying camping equipment. However, they had managed to buy something they needed for the trip. Now, all Sushil had to do was to figure out how to fit everything into his backpack.

12.

 Practice 14

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Jumbo Junior was a baby elephant that had been nicknamed 1.
'Dumbo'. He was given this nickname because of his incredible large ears. However, it turned out that his big ears acted as wings
2.  3.
and enebled him to fly. Dumbo had one troo friend. It was a mouse 4.
named Timothy. The creaters of Dumbo did this on purpose. It 5.
was done to go against the popular idya that mice and elephants were natural enemies.

Ever since the character was introduced, it has become 6.
much popular that it has its own ride in Disneyland parks all over the world. In fact, at June 2009, Dumbo was even included in 8.

7.

the nightly fireworks show in Disneyland parks. During a show, Dumbo would fly around the iconic Sleeping Beauty Castle. Also, in the deily Main Street Electrical Parade that takes place along the streets of Disneyland parks, Dumbo has his own float as well.

9.

10.

In 1941, the animated movie 'Dumbo' win the Academy

Award for Original Music Score. Later in the 1947 Cannes Film

11.

Festival, it won the Best Animation Design award as well. Until 12.

today, Dumbo remains a high popular character. He is much loved by both children and adults.

 Practice 15

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Devi is taking public transport home from school today. This is the first time she will be going home by her. She is feeling both excited and nervuhs at the same time.

1.

2.

3.

Two weeks ago, Devi's father had already started practise with her. He would meet her at the school gate and take the bus home with her. They had to take the total of two buses to get 5.

4.

home. So Devi's father showed her what the landmarks was that she had to look out for. He also had to show her where she had to 6.

alait from the first bus to change to a different bus. It was a little 7.

confused for Devi at the beginning. However, every day for that 8.

first week, Devi's father would patient accompany her home.

9.

By the second week, Devi was getting more fermiliar with 10.

the bus routes. In fact, Devi's father did not have to gaid her at all. She was able to take the buses without her father's help. He merely followed her for the bus rides.

11.

Today, the feeling is a little different. Devi is completely 12.

on her own. Her father is not there to acompany her any more.

However, she knows that if she needs help, she can always call him on her mobile phone.

 Practice 16

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Have you ever wondered how money came about? Money is something that is widely accepted by people in exchange with goods and services. In fact, long ago, people used to exchange goods and services instead of use paper money and coins. This was known as barter trading. The problem with this was that sometimes, people could not agree on the value of the products used in the exchange. Besides, some of these goods were not convenient to transpawrt around. As such, paper money and coins were introduce to resolve these problems.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Every country has its own sistum of coins and paper money.

6. 7.

This is known by the currency of the country. The country's govern is the one that decides on its value. It is considered illegal to rifuse the currency in favour of another form of payment.

8.

Nowadays, there are also virtual currencies and mobile

9. 10.

paiments. The most popular one are Apple Pay and Samsung Pay.

11.

They make use of a portable ilektronic device to pay. The most 12.

known form of virtual currency is called Bitcoin. There is no actuel coin involved. It only exists in the virtual world.

 Practice 17

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

My Aunt Jenny has just quit her job at the bank. She is thinking of setting up her own bizness. She has a few ideas she 2.
 1.

is currently considuring. However, her favourite idea is opening a 3.  4.

kozy cafe. It is not just any cafe. It is a theme cafe. She wants the 5.

cafe to be a pet cafe. It will be a cafe whose pet owners can bring 6.

their pets in while they have a meal. There is a different between her cafe and other pet cafes that already exist. Most other cafes 7.

are either cat cafes nor dog cafes. Aunt Jenny wants her pet cafe to include other taipes of pets like rabbits or birds. First of all, she will have to rent a space that is big enough. She needs the space to be able to have distinkt areas in her cafe for different types of 10.

8.

9.

pets. However, the bigger area will still be for dogs. After all, dogs 11.

are probable the most common pet kept.

Aunt Jenny is looking for the perfect spot to open her cafe.

12.

It must have a large indoor space as well as a large owtdoor space for bigger dogs to run around in. She hopes she can find it soon.

 Practice 18

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Finn is waiting to start studying in a new school. He is going to study fine arts in the established art school. However, the school

1.

2.

turn does not start until five months later.

3.

For the past one month, Finn has been idling around at 4.

5.

home. At the begin, he enjoyed staying at home. It was relaksing to sleep in late and have the free time to do whatever leisurely activities he wanted to do. After a while, he began to feel bore.

6.

7.

So, Finn has decided to find himself a part-time job to occewpy himself. He will be making use of his time meaningfully this way. At the same time, he can uhrn some pocket money for himself and not depend on his parents.

8.

9.

Finn manages to find him a job at an ice cream cafe. His job 10.

is to take orders and surve the customers. He also has to learn how to operate the coffee machine. The manager of the shop 11.

also tells him that from time and time, they serve the ice cream at birthday parties. That will then require him to go to the party venue to work.

12.

Finn is looking forward to start the job. This is the first time that he will be working. It makes him feel very grown up.

 Practice 19

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

Butter Cake

250g softened butter
 1 cup of caster sugar
 2 teaspoons of vanilla essence
 3 eggs
 2 cups of self-raising flour
 1 cup of milk

Method:

1.

Step 1: Preheat the oven from 180 degrees Celsius. Grease a skware cake pan. Line with baked paper.

2.  3.

4.

Step 2: Use an electric mikser at medium speed. Cream the butter, caster sugar and vanilla together. Do this until the 5.

mixture is light and flaaffy.

6.

Step 3: Add in the eggs, one in a time. Combine eggs with the 7.

mixture by beat them together. Then, add in the flour

8. 9.

and stur it in. Add in halved the milk and stir to combine.

Repeat the process with the rest of the flour and milk.

Step 4: Spread the mixture into the cake pan. Place into the oven to beik for an hour. Test by stick in a skewer. It should come out clean. When reidy, take the pan out of the oven and leave it to stand for ten minutes. Finally, transfer the cake onto a wire rack to cool. Sprinkle with icing sugar.

10. 11.

12.

 Practice 20

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes.

A bagel is a type of bread. It is associated with the Jewish community. It is usually sheiped like a ring. It is first boiled in 2.

1.

3.

water for a few while. After boiling, it is then baked. The eenside of a bagel is chewy while the outside is crisp. Sometimes, bagels

4.

are baked from seeds on the outside.

5.

In North America, bagels are a popular baked produkt. They come in a varied of flavours with different toppings. They are available in many meijor stores.

6.

7.

The design of a bagel goes back hundreds of years. The hole in the centre has many advantages, including making it easier to 8.

hendle and transport.

9.

There are general two main types of bagels. They are the Montreal-style and the New York-style bagels. The Montreal-style bagel has no salt and is boiled in honey-sweetened water. On the other hand, the New York-style bagel has salt and is boiled in 10.

plein water.

11.

Bagels need to be store in a paper bag. The bag must be 12.

placed in the plastic bag before removing as much air as possible.

After that, keep the bagels in a freezer.