

Practice 1

Editing

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

Kenny was all ready for his first day at school. His bag was packed with his textbooks and stashoniry. His uniform and shoes were cleaned and set out. He could not wait to make new friends.
1.

2.

"Don't forget to eat something during recess," reminded 3.
his mother. She gave Kenny a kiss on his forhead. Kenny waved goodbye and set off for school.

In the classroom, he saw that some of his classmates from the previous year were in his new class too. "Did you know that 4.

Mr Michael were our form teacher again?" said Yi Cheng.

5.

Everyone are delighted. Kenny felt great about the new year.

Practice 2

Editing

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

For Fitness Day, Zi Lei and her classmates were selected to lead the school in some simple exercises. Zi Lei was not sure how to do any exercise at all. Luckily, the other pupils know some. "We can do some stretching. We just have to stretch our nacks, arms and legs," said Vivian. John suggested doing some 3.

1.

2.

jumping jacks ?

4.

Zi Lei explained that they would have to shows her how to do these exercises. They demonstrated each one a few times before asking her to try. It was indeed kwaite easy! The three of them agreed to do these exercises for Fitness Day.

5.

Practice 3

Editing

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

The wind was getting stronger. Wan Ling hoped that she would reaching her house before it started pouring. As she was nearing her block, she heard a curious sound and realised 2.
1.

it was coming from a cadbod box on the ground. A tiny kitten was mewling in it.

3.

Wan Ling decided to brought the kitten home, at least until the rain had stopped. She gave the kitten a big warm towel 4.
to sleep in (, Before long, the kitten was fast asleep. Wan Ling thought that perhaps she could konveence her parents to let her keep the kitten for a bit longer. Brownie sounded like a good name for a little sandy-coloured kitten.

5.

Practice 4

Editing

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

The bell rang. Azri took his lunchbox out of his bag and joined his friends at the canteen. He took a seat next from
1.

Eleanor, who asked him what he had brought that day.
2.

He opened the lunchbox and Eleanor exclaimed ○ "Wow!
Homemade buns with tuna filling! It looks delicious."

Azri's mother always made something for Azri to bring 3.

to school. His friends took turns to guesses what was in the 4.

lunchbox. He torr the bun into two and shared it with Eleanor.

5.

"Ask your mother to make pizza toomorro!" Eleanor said excitedly. Azri laughed and agreed that it was a good idea.

Practice 5

Editing

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

There was a new stationery shop in school. Everyone was 1.
buzzing with excitement because of it. Aravind had porposely asked his mother for a bit more money so that he could buy something from the shop. There were coloured pencils in more 2.
shades than a raneboe, rulers and ballpoint pens. There was 3.
even a cool magnetic board that one could buy to setting up at home!

4.
While everyone else continued looking around, Aravind 5.
found a shelf with erasers. He decided to buys an eraser that looked like a cloud. It cost 60 cents. Aravind could not wait to show his new eraser to his parents.