

Editing

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

Wei Zhen decided to make herself a cup of tea. She felt that drinking a hot drink was very relax. Wei Zhen took out her mug and put in a tea bag. After pouring in hot water, she stirred in two teaspoons of sugar. Soon, the tea was ready.

1.

2.

3.

Wei Zhen carefully took a sip and spet the tea out immediately. It tasted salty! She went back to the kitchen and saw that she had taken the salt instead of sugar. Now the tea was spoil and she had to throw it away. What a fannie incident!

4.

5.

She reminded herself to tell her parents about it when they came home so that they could have a good laugh together.

Practice 17

Editing

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

Jeremy's newest hobby was origami. He liked folding a square piece of paper into a shape that he wanted. One of the simplest origami art was to fold a paper bote.

1.

2.

Jeremy first learnt about origami when his cousin buys origami lanterns. He was amazed that a piece of paper could be folded into something so preety. His cousin then taught him how to fold a paper ball. He follows her step by step and after a while, he had his own blue paper ball. Since then, Jeremy has made paper hearts for his mother a little fox for his father and paper stars for his friends. His next project was to make a swan.

3.

4.

5.

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

1.

It was time for school. Amira opened her eyes and koffed.

Her throat was feeling quite sore and dry. She could hear her mother prepared breakfast. Amira got up and went to the kitchen.

2.

Amira told her mother she was not feeling well. Amira's mother placed her hand on Amira's forehead and exclaimed,

3.

"You have a fever! You wonOt be able to go to school today."

4.

While Amira was washing up, she could hears her mother talking to her teacher on the phone. Once Amira was ready, they went to the kleanic. The doctor told Amira that she needed some medicine, lots of water and plenty of rest.

5.

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

Coach Yeo was training the runners for the upcoming relay race. Sheena had been selected to represents her school in the race.

"On your marks get set, go!" shouted Coach Yeo.

Sheena pushed herself from the starting poseesion and dashed forward. Just as she crosses the finishing line, she felt her leg stiffen. She gave a cry as she fell to the ground. Everyone rushed over to her.

After Coach Yeo examined Sheena's leg, he took out a can and sprayed some leekuid onto her leg. He told her to relax while he massaged her cramped muscle until it was less stiff.

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. A wrong or missing punctuation is indicated by a circle. Put the correct punctuation mark or word in each of the boxes.

Mrs Neo took a bag of green beans from the basket and handed them to her daughter Wan Xian, who needed some beans for an experiment.

Wan Xian washed the beans and placed them carefully on 1. a damp piece of caughten wool. She was supposed to water 2. the beans every day and let them grow into little plunts. She 3. would have to record how much the beans grows each day.

“Do you think the beans will grow quickly ” asked 4. Wan Xian. She placed the container of beans in her table.

“Yes, if you take good care of them,” replied Mrs Neo.