It was a busy morning on the roads. Traffic was heavy. Ben was walking to the bakery when he saw a blind man with a walking stick at the zebra crossing.

Ben walked up to the man and asked, "Hi, can I help you across?" The blind man nodded and thanked Ben for offering his help. Ben held the man's left hand and they stepped off the pavement and onto the road. They walked carefully across the road. When Ben and the man were safely across, the man thanked Ben again. He praised Ben for being a helpful boy and shook his hand.

Picture Conversation

This is a picture of an open-air eating place. There are two stalls. One probably sells noodles while the other sells desserts. There are many people queuing up at the desserts stall. This is because it is probably a hot day. Having something cold and sweet on a hot day would quench their thirst. I think the people in the picture are enjoying themselves. At a table, a boy seems to be chatting happily to his mother. Two people in the queue are also talking happily. I have been to a place like this. My parents took me there to have dinner. We ate a lot of food like satay and barbecued fish.

My English teacher was absent last Friday.

A relief teacher, Miss Chew, came to take over her class. Some of my classmates were very mischievous. They did not pay attention when Miss Chew was teaching. When Miss Chew had her back to the class, Timothy and Harry stood on their chairs and started dancing. Alex threw a paper plane at Jack while Alison and Jasmine started eating a packet of biscuits. Other pupils talked to face us and saw our misbehaviour, she was very angry. All of us had to apologise to Miss Chew.

Tom and Nick were at the swimming complex. They were headed for the shallow pool when Nick suddenly pushed Tom. "Ha, ha, ha!"

Nick laughed when Tom almost fell into the pool. Angry, Tom pushed Nick and tried to kick him too.

As the ground was wet and slippery, Nick slipped and fell into the pool. His legs could not reach the bottom of the pool. Knowing that he had fallen into the deep pool, he panicked and shouted for help. He could not swim well and was afraid that he would drown.

Tom was also in a state of panic when he saw his friend struggling in the water. A lifeguard had witnessed the whole incident. He jumped into the pool without hesitation.

The lifeguard grabbed Nick and kept his head above the water. He told Nick to stop struggling. He then pulled Nick to safety. Tom was glad that Nick was all right. Both boys apologised to each other and thanked the lifeguard for saving Nick.

Picture Conversation

This is a picture of a fair. There are food stalls selling candyfloss, popcorn, chicken wings and hot dogs. There are game stalls as well. The children seem to be having fun playing games and eating. Everyone seems to be having a good time because everyone is smiling and looks excited. I have been to a food fair before. I ate a lot of food like mee siam and burgers. My parents took me there and we had so much to eat that we left the place with bulging stomachs.

It was an exciting day. We were going on a learning journey with our teacher. We took the bus to a fish farm. We saw many different kinds of fish. There was also a fishing pond at the farm. We were each given a pail and a net to catch as many fish as we could. We had a lot of fun.
